Strong themes and violence

A calmly devastating exploration of how one misjudged moment in life has the potential to cause everything to fall to pieces. A man travels to Cambodia with his pregnant wife, her sister and boyfriend. After a night of partying, the boyfriend disappears without a trace. The others return to their lives, each bearing differing degrees of knowledge about what happened...

Sep 2 Oh Brother, Where Art Thou?

USA 2000 106 minutes

Comedy

Directed by: Joel and Ethan Coen

Stars: George Clooney, John Turturro, Tim Blake Nelson

Surprising...refreshing.. Brilliantly written and superbly acted!

M
Low level violence

In the deep south during the 1930's, three escaped convicts search for a hidden treasure while pursued by a relentless lawman. Based on Homer's The Odessey, the Coen brothers interpretation of this epic story is brilliantly written and superbly acted. A great soundtrack too!

Strong themes, sex scenes, nudity

A former schoolteacher is forced to start over, having survived a tough divorce and the loss of his job. Just as things are starting to go his way, his life is shattered when an untruthful remark throws his small community into a collective state of hysteria.

Nov 4 What's Eating Gilbert Grape?

USA 1993 117 minutes

Drama

Directed by: Lasse Hallstrom

Stars: Johnny Depp, Leonardo DiCaprio, Juliette Lewis

Endearingly eccentric... A look at who the true heroes are

Sexual references

This film is a deeply tragic, yet deeply realistic tale of a complicated family stuck in a small town. Gilbert has to look after both his intellectually challenged brother and his obese mother, which gets in the way when love walks into his life. A truly wonderful performance by the young Leonardo DiCaprio.

Dec 2 Hercules Returns

Australia 1993 80 minutes

Comedy

Directed by: David Parker
